THE DOIN' TIME REVIEW

EDITORIAL

Would you believe that the highest Canadian in the world is not wandering around our hallways but instead, he is 29, 600 feet up a mountain called Everest. This canuck's name is Laurie Skreslet and he is 32 and also a native Calgarian. (Eat your hearts out Edmontonians.) This great achievement was done in the midst of a tragedy that took the life of one Canadian and two Sherpas. Some members decided that the climb was not worth the risk and came home while others, like Laurie Skreslet, continued the ascent of Everest. In the end, as we all know, the climb turned out successfully. Also a knote of achievement was the sherpa Sundare, who completed his third ascent of Everest. Accompanying Skreslet and Sundare to the peak was a second sherpa named Lhakpa DOYE.

This event was one of the proudest moments in our country's history.
